

DELMONT PRIVATE HOSPITAL GRADUATE NURSE PROGRAM

Delmont Private Hospital (located in Glen Iris) offers a wide variety of clinical education opportunities for nurses who are interested in Mental Health nursing. The aim of the Graduate Nurse Program (GNP) is to provide a comprehensive education in the care and management of mental health patients that can translate mental health nursing theory into practice.

THE PROGRAM

- 12-month time frame
- Comprehensive orientation and ongoing preceptorship support
- Mental Health skills and specific clinical ward competencies
- Diverse clinical experience through speciality clinical rotations
- Ongoing employment offered at Delmont Private Hospital on completion of GNP.
- Ongoing clinical supervision
- Professional development days
- Eligibility for credit toward post graduate studies at Monash University
- Financial support (conditions apply)

CLINICAL PLACEMENTS OFFERED

- General Adult Psychiatry
- Aged Mental Health
- Substance Use and Addiction
- Neuro Stimulation Service (ECT and TMS)
- Inpatient Therapy
- Delmont Day Program
- Young Adult Program (YAP)
- Community Outreach Services

For more information on Delmont Private Hospital visit our website: www.delmonthospital.com.au

